

Welcome to
El Museo del Barrio!

We are located on 5th Avenue between 104th and 105th
Street, in Manhattan.

This is the entrance to El Museo del Barrio:

You'll enter into our lobby:

Or name is in Spanish. In English, it means “The Museum of the Neighborhood”.

When you enter El Museo, you'll meet Will, our Head of Security.

Caridad works at the Coat Check. When you come in, you'll leave your coat, backpack, food, and umbrella with her. She may have you put your stuff in a big blue bin.

Your educator will meet with you in the lobby.

You will follow your educator and come upstairs to our classroom, which we call El Taller.

In order to keep everyone safe in the museum let's follow these rules:

In the museum we should:

1. We should stay together with our group
2. We should listen to each other and the educator closely
3. We should share any objects that are passed around
4. We will have fun!

In the museum we should not:

1. Please do not touch the art work around you

In El Taller, you are going to listen to a story and pass around objects that you can touch, smell and look at.
Remember to listen closely to the educator!

After listening to the educator's story, we will make some art together! We will listen to the educator's instructions and start our art activity.

After having fun with our educator, let's help them clean up the art making materials.

You can take your art work home with you and keep making art with your family!

Thank you for coming to El
Museo del Barrio!

We hope to see you again
soon!
