ABOUT SUPER SABADO

SUPER SÁBADO is a free public program series for all ages offered on the third Saturday during the months of October, November, February and March. These daylong events at El Museo highlight the museum's arts and cultural programs and provide the opportunity to share them with New York City (and visitors from the tri-state area) free-of-charge. Through free concerts, exhibitions, art-making workshops, film screenings, and performances, SUPER SÁBADO showcases traditions, cultural expressions and the latest in Latin American and Latino art.

SUPER SÁBADO's broad range of cultural offerings attracts over 10,000 diverse audience members from all five New York City boroughs and the tri-state area each year—including children and adults of all ages—with a large component from the local El Barrio community. SUPER SÁBADO offers something for everyone, and has proven successful since its implementation in 2009.
