ABOUT SUPER SABADO

SUPER SABADO is a free public program series for all ages on the third Saturday of the month, from September through May. These day-long events at El Museo highlight the museum's arts and cultural programs and provide the opportunity to share them with New York City (and visitors from the tri-state area) free-of-charge. Through free concerts, exhibitions, art-making workshops, film screenings, and performances, SUPER SABADO showcases traditions, cultural expressions, and the latest in Latin American and Latino art.

SUPER SABADO's broad range of cultural offerings attracts over 10,000 diverse audience members from all five New York City boroughs and the tri-state area each year—including children and adults of all ages—with a large component from the local El Barrio community. SUPER SABADO offers something for everyone, and has proven successful since its implementation in 2009.
